

For many people living in Cornwall represents the ultimate lifestyle dream, with a unique combination of beaches, outdoor activities as well as all the requirements of a modern lifestyle.

Cornwall is well known for its beauty and charm, a favorite destination for millions of holiday makers every year. A combination of good weather, sandy beaches and clean seas are just a part of the attraction.

The number of magnificent gardens and country houses would rival any part of the country, and Cornwall's pride in its Celtic heritage and unique place in history add to the appeal.

The county city of Truro is a thriving centre of enterprise and commerce, with its maze of small streets and independent retailers, a refreshing change from the big chain dominated town centres.

Just a few of the exciting attractions that are on your doorstep when living in Cornwall are:

- Hundreds of beautiful sandy beaches
- Great shopping in Truro and other centers
- Coastal walks on the south western Coastal Path

- Night life in Falmouth, Newquay, Truro
- Most of England's best surf beaches
- Quaint coastal villages and harbours including St Ives, Post Isaac, Polperro, and many more.
- An outdoor lifestyle with fresh air whenever you want it.
- Escape from the rat race!

More and more people are choosing to make Cornwall their home, and with excellent communication links, fast broad-band services it is an easier transition than you might think.
